Dear Sirs:

Our library is desirous of adding to its books on coins and wishes especially to secure up-to-date catalogs of coins of various countries. Could you recommend to us some good recent books along this line, giving us the publishers and prices of such books? Any information you can give us will be much appreciated.

Yours truly,

Webster Wheelock,

Attention - Miss C. Dame

Dear Madam:

Responding to yours of February 2nd, I feel that we may help you to better purpose if you will give us some idea of how large the numismatic section which you now have, is.

Have you the British Museum Catalogues?
Do you desire books in foreign languages?

If you could give us some idea of the amount you have available for the purpose of increasing this section, it would be of assistance in the making up of a list.

Also, do you have any numismatic periodicals or files of them? And, if so, what?

We are desirous of aiding you, and the questions outlined above should bring out the best means of doing so.

Very truly yours,

Librarian-Secretary
